ASSOCIATE OF APPLIED BUSINESS IN ACCOUNTING

The Williamson College of Business Administration offers an Associate of Applied Business in Accounting that includes some business tool courses and some upper-level accounting courses. This degree is often pursued by individuals already in the workforce wanting to enhance their knowledge and skills in the field of accounting, often leading to promotion and/or salary increase. The majority of courses taken in the Associate of Applied Business in Accounting can all be applied to the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Accounting degree.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

An Associate of Applied Business in Accounting equips graduates with a solid foundation in business principles, opening doors to a variety of entry-level career opportunities across multiple industries. Graduates can pursue roles such as bookkeepers, tax preparers, and human resources assistants, where skills in organization, communication, and basic accounting are invaluable. Moreover, this degree can serve as a foundation to pursue a bachelor's degree in business.

STUDENT EXPERIENCES

or POL 1560

Students enrolled in the Associate of Applied Business in Accounting have the opportunity to build their knowledge and leadership skills in their field through various student leadership organizations including the Institute of Management Accountants, the Economics Club, and the Student Nonprofit Leadership Organization.
